

LAB 4

Regular Languages, Regular Expressions and Non-Deterministic Finite Automata

The aim of this programming assignment is to write a program that given a regular language described by a regular expression determines the corresponding non-deterministic finite automaton that recognizes it. The simulation will specify all the transitions starting from the initial state and arriving to the accept state.